

Scott, Mann victorious in northern lassie chase

1978

Rinks skipped by Marion Scott of North Battleford and Betty Mann of Battleford won the right to advance in to the ladies northern Lassie at Saskatoon January 30-February 2.

Carol Christopher was a victim of both Scott and Mann, falling to Scott in the

'A' side final, then losing to Mann on the 'B' side.

Scott is supported by third Chris Hushagen, second Signe Hushagen and lead Phyllis McLeod, while Mann curls with third Mary Zawada, second Evelyn Bowers and lead Joy Opheim.

In getting to the 'A' final,

Scott beat Omelchenko, while Christopher got past Mann.

In opening round action, Omelchenko beat Penley of Wilkie, Scott defeated Boulton of Battleford, Christopher downed Forbes of Senlac, and Mann beat Carbert of Meadow Lake.

On the 'B' side, Boulton beat Penley, Forbes got past Carbert, Omelchenko dropped Boulton and Mann eliminated Forbes to take the rematch with Christopher.

Two rinks will advance from the northern play-downs to the provincial Lassie at Moose Jaw.

BETTY MANN

MARY ZAWADA

EVELYN BOWERS

JOY OPHEIM