The Saskatchewan postal curling championship will be held next weekend at the Highland.

Sixteen rinks will take part in the double-knockout competition which begins Friday at 3 p.m. and will wind up Feb. 22 at the same time.

Defending champion Bob Wilkins of Shaunavon and former titlist Rod Forrester of North Battleford are among the favorites in the field, along with Wendel

Charbonneau of Regina, Gord Johnson of Yorkton, Whip Young of Moose Jaw, Ed Lange of Saskatoon and Ev Ellison of Prince Albert.

Rounding out the field are Mel Shannon, Mark Behrns, Chris Barnett, Dave Markowsky and Bob Campbell of Regina, Jack Patterson, John Perkins and Gary Kunard of Saskatoon, and Jim Priestley of Prince Albert.
