

Smith Wins Shirt Sleeve

The Al Smith rink won the Shirt Sleeve Bonspiel's first event last Thursday night at the North Battleford Granite Curling Club with a win over the Ed Zawada rink in the final. The winning rink members are (l-r) Ray Cole, Al Smith, Allen Turuk and Dean Mitchell.

The Al Smith rink slole three in the 10th end to ice away, a win over the EdZawada rink and capture the Shirt Sleeve Bonspiel's first event honors at the North Battleford Granite Curling Club last Thursday night.

Al Smith and his four-some edged the Stewart Smith rink to advance to the final while the Ed Zawada rink slipped by Geo MacGregor to advance.

In the second event it was Neil Lampitt over R. Morrison in the final.

Lampitt and company advanced with a win over Wilson, while R. Morrison downed Lawrence Lessard in semi-final action.

In the third event Conrad Bernier's rink slipped by the Fred Nesom rink to win after advancing from a semi-final win over Al Lee. Nesom advanced out of the semi-final with a win over B. Waterhouse.

In the fourth event it was the D. Forbes rink over Derrick Flasch's foursome in the final. Forbes downed B. Guest to advance, while Flasch advanced with a semi-final win over B. Gregg.

In the Mixed event it was St. Amant downing J. Bru in the final. St. Amant advanced with a semi-final win over Studney, while Bru downed Campbell to advance.

This year's Shirt Sleeve Bonspiel attracted 40 men's rinks and 14 mixed rinks for a 54 rink total.

April 8/85